(CME Clearing Member)

The trades of a CME clearing member (“clearing member”) may receive equity member fee rates – less than charged to non-member customers. The member firm trades of a clearing member and all of its 100% owned subsidiaries are entitled to equity member fees.

In order for clearing members to receive equity member fees on CME trades, all member firm trading must be conducted in accordance with CME Group Inc.’s Fee Policy Bulletins on CME Group Inc.’s website at <http://www.cmegroup.com/tools-information/fee-policy-bulletins.html> for Member Firm Trading Policies.

Requirements (Absolutes)

A member firm trading account is evidenced through:

- The financial benefit and risk shall be solely of the member firm – only firm capital is at risk of loss.
- No non-owner traders may make any contributions or payments to the member firm or member firm trading account nor have any capital at risk in connection with their trading of the member firm account.
- All contributions by owners of the member firm are subject to risk of loss from any and all trading and business activities of the firm.
- All profits and losses of the member firm account are written off to the income of the member firm and are taxed to the member firm in accordance with IRS regulations.
- All trading must be done in member firm trading accounts held in the name of the clearing member.

Further, clearing member trading activity must be conducted by traders including operators/administrators of Automated Trading Systems (“ATS”) that are:

- Bona-fide W-2 employees (or equivalent W-2 of a foreign jurisdiction) of the clearing member; or
- Independent contractors and other self-employed individuals who maintain at least $250,000 in holdbacks whose total compensation (that is, all compensation) is reported on a IRS Form 1099-MISC (“1099-MISC”) (or equivalent document of a foreign jurisdiction) and/or on an IRS Form 1099-B (“1099-B”) of the clearing member; or
- Owners who maintain at least $250,000 in bona-fide capital and holdbacks; or

Best Practices

CME Group Inc. recognizes that certain business practices may be utilized when conducting customer business as well as member firm trading activities. The Best Practices were established to allow member firms to utilize certain business practices (most not allowed in the past) which are generally prohibited. In order to do so, the member firm must clearly demonstrate to CME Group Inc. their application of these non-compliant practices is not inconsistent with CME Group Inc.'s goal of providing member fees only for member firm trading activity. Such practices will be reviewed individually and in the aggregate in relation to the firm's entire trading activities and operation.

Review of such non-compliant practices will reflect the following key principles of CME Group Inc.'s member firm trading policies. First and foremost, the trading activity eligible for member fees must be conducted for the account and sole benefit of the member firm itself. The trading activity of individual customers/traders conducted in the name of the firm is not eligible for discounted member firm fees in order to prevent arcade type trading under the guise of member firm trading and to prevent the "selling" of member firm rates. Further, a member firm may only profit/benefit from the member firm trading activity through the performance of the trade and not from any other source such as a commission or charge for trade execution.

Non-compliance with the Best Practices below is generally prohibited as it is indicative of arcade type trading, the selling of rates, and/or profiting from sources other than the performance of the member firm trade. As such, while the Best Practices are not absolutes as the Requirements are, any non-compliance of the Best Practices will be carefully reviewed with the burden of responsibility on the clearing member to clearly support and demonstrate to CME Group Inc.'s satisfaction that the trading is of the clearing member itself. Under limited circumstances in reviewing the totality of the clearing member's trading operations and the violative practice(s), CME Group Inc. may deem the clearing member's trading activities in accordance with CME Group Inc.'s policies for clearing member trading activity that is eligible for equity member fees. Please check the box next to each practice which you do not comply with regarding your member firm trading:

- ☐ The firm may not charge interest on debit balances to traders nor may it pay interest on credit balances to traders except where an options trading strategy is utilized in which interest on the premium is a key component of the overall profitability of the strategy.
- ☐ The firm may not pay interest on holdbacks where holdbacks are permitted.
- ☐ The firm may not pay interest on capital contributions.
- ☐ The firm may not allocate expenses to trades or traders in excess of actual direct and indirect expenses of the individual member firm trades or traders. Only actual expenses incurred may be allocated – a mark up on expenses is not permitted. Further, opportunity costs may not be allocated. Clearing members must maintain and provide adequate supporting calculations and documentation of such allocated expenses and their reasonableness.
- ☐ A firm may not charge a fee for capital usage to individual traders of the member firm's accounts.
- ☐ A firm may not charge a fee for the cost of capitalizing the firm (and thus the member firm's trading accounts) to individual traders.
- ☐ Individual owners and investing LLCs (as permitted) of a clearing member may not have a specific interest in the profitability of a clearing member account or group of accounts other than a clearing member account that the individual owners or owners of the investing LLC trade or provide direct supervision/training to.

I represent that all current and future member firm trading activity of clearing member receiving equity member clearing fee rates will conform to the requirements for such trading activity established by CME Group Inc.

I attest that the above information is true and correct. I further acknowledge that confirming incorrect information may subject me to CME Group Inc. disciplinary action and/or penalties.
