CONFIRMATION OF CHANGES TO THE CLEARING RULES AND PROCEDURES

2. On 11 November 2013 (Notice 13-83), CMECE consulted on changes related to its client clearing arrangements. The Clearing Rules have been updated to reflect the fact that a Clearing Member located in England, Wales, Scotland and France will no longer need to sign the Client Protection Agreement documents. However, clients will continue to need to sign the Client Acknowledgement.

3. This Notice is to confirm the changes to the Rules related to client clearing and the Fully Segregated Account, which will come into effect on 9 June 2014.

4. Any other queries should be sent to compliance@cmeclearingeurope.com.
