CME Group intends to Close CME Europe and CME Clearing Europe by Year-End

CME Group today announced that it intends to close its London-based derivatives exchange and clearing house, CME Europe and CME Clearing Europe, by year-end 2017.

During the coming months, CME Europe will work closely with all market participants and regulators to ensure a smooth transition and an orderly wind down of business operations, including the provision of CME Group market alternatives for actively traded products on CME Europe.

Further details will be announced shortly.

The press release can be found in the media room at <http://www.cmegroup.com/media-room.html>.
