

	Clearing (FIA) DR Test	CME Clearing Connectivity Testing	CME Globex DR Exercise	CME Globex Connectivity Testing
Scenario	Downtown Chicago area has been affected and the Clearing production data center is compromised and CME Group must failover to the Clearing DR environment.		Areas outside of the Chicagoland area have been affected and the CME Globex production data center is compromised. As a result, CME Group must failover to the CME Globex DR environment.
CME Group Systems Impact	Clearing Systems operate in Disaster Recovery  CME Globex Systems operate in Production	CME Clearing Systems operate in Disaster Recovery	Globex Systems operate in Disaster Recovery  Clearing Systems operate in Production	Globex systems operate in Disaster Recovery
Firm Systems	Systems operate in Disaster Recovery mode or otherwise follow the recommendation of the FIA	Firms can determine whether they use their Production or Disaster Recovery environment based on the desired scope of their exercise	Firms can determine whether they use their Production or Disaster Recovery environment based on the desired scope of their exercise	Systems operate in DR mode. Firms ping CME Group Disaster Recovery IP addresses from either their Production or DR environment based on the desired scope of their exercise
Timeframe	October	In preparation for the Futures Industry Association (FIA) test, there are 2 Saturday CME Clearing connectivity tests dates offered.	August/September	By request on specified Saturdays throughout the year (contact your Global Account Manager to determine specific dates)
Registration	This is part of the Futures Industry Association (FIA) test and participants must register on the FIA website prior to the exercise.	Customer should contact CME Clearing Customer Service at 312.930.2525 to participate in the CME Clearing connectivity tests to schedule a date.	Customers should contact their Global Account Manager to register and confirm their DR IP addresses prior to participating in the exercise.	Customers should contact their Global Account Manager to register and confirm their iLink DR IP addresses prior to participating in the test.