

Chapter 19A

Standard Options on Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note Futures

19A00. SCOPE OF CHAPTER

This chapter is limited in application to put and call options on Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures. In addition to the rules of this chapter, transactions in options on U.S. Treasury Note futures shall be subject to the general rules of the Exchange insofar as applicable.

19A01. OPTIONS CHARACTERISTICS

19A01.A. Contract Months

Trading may be conducted in options for expiry within a thirty-six month period extending from the nearby futures delivery month, provided however, that the Exchange may determine not to list a futures contract delivery month. Options may be listed to expire into either nearby or deferred futures, as determined by the Exchange

19A01.B. Trading Unit

One $100,000 face value Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures contract of a specified contract month.

19A01.C. Minimum Fluctuations

The premium for Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures options shall be in multiples of one sixty-fourth (1/64) of one percent (1%) of a $100,000 Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures contract which shall equal $15.625 per 1/64 and $1,000 per full point.

However, a position may be initiated or liquidated in U.S. Treasury Note futures options at a premium ranging from $1.00 to $15.00, in $1.00 increments per option contract.

If options are quoted in volatility terms, the minimum fluctuation shall be .10 percent (i.e. 10.0%, 10.1%, 10.2%, etc.).

19A01.D. Trading Hours

The hours of trading for options on Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures shall be determined by the Exchange. Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures options shall be opened and closed for all months and strike prices simultaneously or in such other manner as the Exchange shall direct.

On its last day of trading, an expiring Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures option shall cease trading at the same time as the close of trading for the corresponding futures contract on that trading day.

19A01.E. Exercise Prices

Trading shall be conducted for put and call options with striking prices in integral multiples of one-half (1/2) point per Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures contract as follows:

At the commencement of trading for such option contracts, the following striking prices shall be listed: one with a striking price closest to the Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures contract's previous day's settlement price and the next fifty consecutive higher and the next fifty consecutive lower striking prices closest to the previous day's settlement price. If the previous day's settlement price is midway between two striking prices, the closest price shall be the larger of the two. Over time, new striking prices will be added to ensure that at least fifty striking prices always exist above and below the previous day's settlement price on the underlying futures contract. All new striking prices will be added prior to the opening of trading on the following business day.

The Exchange may modify the procedure for the introduction of striking prices as it deems appropriate in order to respond to market conditions.

19A01.G. Nature of Options on Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note Futures

The buyer of one Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures put option may exercise his option at any time prior to expiration (subject to Rule 19A02.A.) to assume a short position of one Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures contract of a specified contract month at a striking price set at the time the option was purchased. The seller of one Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures put option incurs the obligation of assuming a long position of one Long-Term U.S. Treasury

Note futures contract of a specified contract month at a striking price set at the time the option was sold, upon exercise by a put option buyer.

The buyer of one Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures call option may exercise his option at any time prior to expiration (subject to Rule 19A02.A.) to assume a long position of one Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures contract of a specified contract month at a striking price set at the time the option was purchased. The seller of one Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures call option incurs the obligation of assuming a short position of one Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures contract of a specified contract month at a striking price set at the time the option was sold, upon exercise by a call option buyer.

19A01.I. Termination of Trading

19A01.I.1 Monthly Serial and Quarterly Options

The last day of trading in any monthly serial or quarterly option for expiry in a given month shall be the last Friday which precedes by at least two business days the last business day of the calendar month next preceding such option's named expiry month. If such Friday is not a business day, or if there is a Friday which is not a business day that precedes by one business day the last business day of the calendar month next preceding such option's named expiry month, then the last day of trading in such option shall be the business day prior to such Friday.

On their last day of trading, expiring monthly serial or quarterly options shall cease trading at the close of trading in the corresponding Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures contract, subject to the provisions of Rule 19A01.D.

19A01.I.2. Weekly Options

Any weekly option shall be designated to expire on a given Friday, provided however that no weekly option shall be designated to expire on any Friday that is also the last day of trading in a monthly serial or quarterly option (Rule 19A01.I.1.). Trading in any weekly option shall terminate on the Friday on which such option is designated to expire. If such Friday is not a business day, then trading in weekly options designated for expiration on such Friday shall terminate on the next preceding Exchange business day.

On its last day of trading, an expiring weekly option shall cease trading at the close of trading in the corresponding Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures contract, subject to the provisions of Rule 19A01.D.

19A01.I.3. Trading in Underlying Futures

In the event that the underlying futures market does not open on a day scheduled for option expiration, such option expiration shall occur on the next day on which the underlying futures market opens for trading.

19A01.J. Contract Modification

Specifications shall be fixed as of the first day of trading of a contract except that all options must conform to government regulations in force at the time of exercise. If the U.S. government, an agency, or duly constituted body thereof issues an order, ruling, directive, or law inconsistent with these rules, such order, ruling, directive, or law shall be construed to become part of the rules and all open and new options contracts shall be subject to such government orders.

19A02. EXERCISE AND ASSIGNMENT

In addition to the applicable procedures and requirements in Chapter 7, the following shall apply to the exercise and assignment of Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note Options.

19A02.A. Exercise of Option

The buyer of a Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures option may exercise the option on any business day prior to expiration by giving notice of exercise to the Clearing House by 6:00 p.m., or by such other time designated by the Exchange, on such day.

After the close on the last day of trading, all in-the-money options shall be automatically exercised, unless notice to cancel automatic exercise is given to the Clearing House. Notice to cancel automatic exercise shall be given to the Clearing House by 6:00 p.m., or by such other time designated by the Exchange, on the last day of trading.

Unexercised Long-Term U.S. Treasury Note futures options shall expire at 7:00 p.m. on the last day of trading.

19A02.B. Assignment

Exercise notices accepted by the Clearing House shall be assigned through a process of random selection to clearing members' open short positions in the same series. A clearing member to which an exercise notice is assigned shall be notified thereof as soon as practicable after such notice is assigned by the Clearing House.

The clearing member assigned an exercise notice shall be assigned a short position in the underlying futures contract if a call is exercised or a long position if a put is exercised. The clearing member representing the option buyer shall be assigned a long position in the underlying futures contract if a call is exercised and a short position if a put is exercised.

All such futures positions shall be assigned at a price equal to the exercise price of the option and shall be marked to market in accordance with Rule 814. on the trading day of acceptance by the Clearing House of the Exercise Notice.

19A03. ACTS OF GOVERNMENT, ACTS OF GOD AND OTHER EMERGENCIES

(Refer to Rule 701.)

19A04. CORRECTIONS TO OPTIONS EXERCISES

Corrections to option exercises, including automatic exercises, may be accepted by the Clearing House after the 6:00 p.m. deadline and up to the beginning of final option expiration processing provided that such corrections are necessary due to: (1) a bona fide clerical error, (2) an un-reconciled Exchange option transaction(s), or (3) an extraordinary circumstance where the clearing firm and customer are unable to communicate final option exercise instructions prior to the deadline. The decision as to whether a correction is acceptable will be made by the President of the Clearing House, or the President's designee, and such decision will be final.

19A05. PAYMENT OF OPTION PREMIUM

The option premium must be paid in full by each clearing member to the Clearing House and by each option customer to his futures commission merchant at the time that the option is purchased, or within a reasonable time after the option is purchased.
