Dynamic Strike Price Listing Eligibility for Soybean Board Crush Spread Options and Calendar Spread Options (CSOs) on Grains and Oilseeds

In response to customer demand Soybean Board Crush Spread Options and Calendar Spread Options on grain and oilseed products will be eligible for dynamically listed strike prices by participants on the trading floor. Strike prices that conform to existing strike increments that are not already listed may be added dynamically during a trading session by trading floor participants in order to better respond to market conditions. This functionality will be available beginning Monday August 31, 2009.
