In order to participate in the Program, Clearing Firm agrees:

1. The Program is subject to the Terms & Conditions posted on the CME Group website, as updated from time to time.
2. Clearing Firm will assist its customers that register for the Program by establishing separate accounts in Clearing Firm's bookkeeping system to hold each registered customer's positions in eligible products (if necessary where a customer trades both eligible and non-eligible products).
3. Clearing Firm will assist CME in administering the Program's customer registration process by providing CME such information as it reasonably requests in order to confirm customer and account information.
4. Clearing Firm will report to CME the balances in each of its registered customers' registered accounts on a periodic basis as CME may reasonably request. Initial reports are requested monthly, as described in the Terms & Conditions.
5. Clearing Firm will provide reasonable cooperation to CME in connection with any questions CME may have concerning registered customer's eligibility, the balances of registered accounts of its customers, or periodic spot checks or audits of compliance with the Program's requirements for registered accounts.
6. Clearing Firm participation is voluntary, and Clearing Firm may withdraw from participation at any time upon advance written notice to CME and Clearing Firm's registered customers, as set forth in the Terms & Conditions.
