What is the Silicon Compute On Demand Index?

The Silicon GPU Rental Price Index tracks hourly rental prices for specific GPU models across the full rental market. Each index represents a standardized price drawn from neo-cloud providers.

What are the Bloomberg and Refinitiv product codes?

Compute futures are ticker-mapped across CME Direct and various major market data platforms for real-time order routing and analytics:

Bloomberg (BBG): UGDA Index (H100) and UGIA Index (B200)
Refinitiv (RIC): GPUG (H100) and GPUZ (B200)
Globex and ClearPort: GPU1 (H100) & GPU2 (B200)

How are contract months structured?

Contracts trade on a monthly cycle listed for 36 consecutive months. Vendor codes append standard month/year indicators (e.g., GPUZ26 for Dec 2026).
