ADVISORY #: 17-343

SUBJECT: Live Cattle Grading Capacity Limits

DATE: September 7, 2017

Please be advised, in coordination with the USDA and CME approved Stockyards, the following Live Cattle Stockyard grading capacity limits are in effect beginning with the October 2017 Live Cattle delivery cycle. The capacity limits at the Stockyards have been instituted to ensure Stockyards have the wherewithal to grade cattle on eligible delivery days and a USDA grader is available for grading the cattle. The capacity limits are not static and are subject to change based on changes such as Stockyard wherewithal or USDA grader availability.
