CME Group

Special Executive Report

S-7739 August 31, 2016

Reminder: Amended Pre-Open Session Times on CME Globex for U.S. Holidays

In observance of the U.S.-recognized Labor Day holiday, certain CME Group markets will experience amended pre-open sessions on CME Globex. Market participants are reminded to use caution when entering, canceling, and modifying orders during such pre-open sessions. Please ensure that trading systems are properly configured to address amended opening times in relation to the CME Globex holiday schedule below:

http://www.cmegroup.com/tools-information/holiday-calendar/

Pursuant to Exchange Rule 432 ("General Offenses") and Rule 575 ("Disruptive Practices"), Market Regulation may reach out to any participant whose messaging behavior adversely impacted the pre-open session or the opening price.

To subscribe to receive e-mail notifications of upcoming Globex holidays, select the "Globex Notices" checkbox at the CME Group Subscription Center below:

http://pages.cmegroup.com/subscription-center-sign-in.html

Questions concerning this Special Executive Report may be directed to the following individuals in the Market Regulation Department:

Natasha Selkov, Lead Investigator, 312.341.7623

Colin Garvey, Manager, Investigations, 312.435.3656

For media inquiries concerning this Special Executive Report, please contact CME Group Corporate Communications at 312.930.3434 or news@cmegroup.com .