CME Group to Expand S&P 500 Futures Listing Cycle, Effective December 17, 2010

On December 17, 2010, the Exchange will expand the listing cycle for the Standard and Poor's 500 Stock Price Index Futures (“S&P 500 Futures”).

Currently, the Exchange lists eight (8) consecutive quarterly contracts on the S&P 500 futures contract. Under the new listing procedure, the Exchange will list eight (8) consecutive quarterly contracts plus three (3) additional December contracts. There will always be a total of five (5) December contracts listed for trading.
