Delivery Guarantee Obligations

Clearing firms are reminded that pursuant to CME Rule 771, Settlements on Delivery Fails, they must notify the Clearing House within sixty minutes of a failed delivery obligation. The non-defaulting firm is responsible for contacting the Clearing House within sixty minutes in the event of a delivery fail. These provisions are modeled after those formerly in place at BOTCC. CME Rule 771 states:

"In the event a clearing member fails to fulfill its specific delivery obligations regarding a CBOT product pursuant to CBOT rules, the sole obligation of the Exchange is to pay reasonable damages proximately caused by the default, but in no event is the Exchange obligated to either: (1) pay any damages greater than the difference of the delivery price of the specific commodity and the reasonable market price of such commodity at the time delivery is required according to the Rules of the Exchange; or (2) make or accept delivery of the actual commodity; or (3) pay any damages relating to the accuracy, genuineness, completeness, or acceptableness of certificates, instruments, warehouse receipts or other similar documents; or (4) pay any damages relating to the failure or insolvency of banks, depositories, warehouses, or similar organizations or entities that may be involved with a delivery.

Notwithstanding any provision of the rules, the Exchange has no obligation or liability to any clearing member or any other person relating to a failure to fulfill a delivery obligation unless it is notified by the non-defaulting clearing member of such failure as soon as possible, but in no event later than sixty minutes after the time the delivery obligation was to have been fulfilled according to the rules of the CBOT.

All delivery obligations of a clearing member to another clearing member which are not fulfilled by the clearing member shall be deemed an obligation of the defaulted clearing member to the Exchange. These obligations must be fulfilled to the Exchange within sixty minutes of the time the obligations were required to be fulfilled to the non-defaulting clearing member."

Calls should be directed to Linda Elliott (312.930.3174), Laura Buschnyj (312.634.1598) or Morgan Culverhouse (312.930.2892).
