SUBJECT: SLEDS Launch Postponement

Please be informed that the launch date for CME SLEDS (Single Line Entry of Differential Spreads) in open outcry equity index futures, previously announced for Monday, November 8, has been postponed. This postponement is necessary to allow additional time for testing and training. It is expected the rescheduled launch date will be sometime early next year prior to the start of the March rollover period.

If you have any questions, please call Steve Staszak, Clearing House Department, at 312-930-3189.
