FROM: Clearing House Department

DATE: November 29, 2004

ADVISORY #: 04-226

SUBJECT: December 2004 Currency Delivery Reminders

The December 2004 currency delivery will occur the week of December 13, 2004. Following are several reminders regarding the currency deliveries. Detailed delivery instructions can be found at www.cme.com under the following links http://www.cme.com/files/s\_delivery\_instructions.pdf and <http://www.cme.com/clearing/set/del/delivery/prodcurnny1252.html>.

A. CONTINUOUS LINKED SETTLEMENT (CLS)

Clearing member firms participating in CLS should have all transactions entered into the CME Deliveries system by 11:00 a.m., Monday, December 13th. All transactions must also be entered into the firm's CLS system by 5:00 p.m. Monday, December 13th. The deadline for CLS transactions to match in the CLS system is 1:00 p.m., Tuesday, December 14th. A clearing member firm failing to match a transaction by the deadline will be required to submit an order-to-pay in the appropriate amount of the value of the delivery by 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, December 14th.

New Zealand Dollar, South African Rand and Australian Dollar/New Zealand Dollar Cross Rate will be eligible for CLS delivery effective with the December currency delivery.

As a reminder, firms whose deliveries are reasonably expected to exceed $50,000,000 per currency futures contract must have a CLS relationship in place and ready to utilize for the June, 2005 currency delivery cycle.

B. NEW ZEALAND DOLLAR

New Zealand dollar payments must be made via the New Zealand Real Time Gross Settlement System (RTGS). Citibank cannot confirm receipt of payment sent via any other payment system until the next business day after settlement date. This may delay the corresponding US Dollar payment to your firm.

Again effective with the December currency delivery the New Zealand Dollar contract will be eligible for CLS delivery.

C. SOUTH AFRICAN RAND

There is no longer a dual order-to-pay requirement for the South African Rand. Only clearing member firms long the South African Rand are required to submit a USD denominated order-to-pay for the value of the Rand delivery by 1:00 PM (Central Time) on the day preceding the delivery day. Citibank, New York must receive the payment for the order-to-pay no later than 10:00 AM local time on the delivery day.

Again effective with the December currency delivery the South African Rand contract will be eligible for CLS delivery.

D. MEXICAN PESO

Funding for Mexican Peso must be in place prior to the delivery. Peso payments are to be made via the Mexican Interbank payment system "SPEUA" ("Spay-wah"). In addition to understanding any special account or funding requirements that approved Mexican delivery banks may have, it is important to have a specific individual aware of and in a position to answer any questions regarding peso payments on the delivery day. Mexican Pesos are required to be delivered by 10:00 a.m. local time in the country of origin.

E. BANK ONE – REMOVAL AS AGENT BANK

Bank One is no longer the agent bank for the Japanese Yen, Mini Yen, Australian Dollar/New Zealand Dollar cross-rate, Euro/Yen cross-rate contracts and the delivery bank for the Japanese Yen component of the Dollar Index contract. The agent bank which should be used to facilitate the delivery of the aforementioned currencies is Citibank. All order-to-pays for these contracts should be sent to Citibank, New York by 1:00 p.m. (Central Time) on the business day prior to the day of delivery.
