DATE: June 11, 2007

SUBJECT: June 2007 Currency Delivery Reminders

The June 2007 currency delivery cycle begins Thursday, June 14, 2007. Listed below are several reminders regarding the currency deliveries, detailed delivery instructions can be found at www.cme.com under <http://www.cme.com/clearing/clr/del/delivery/prodcurny1252.html>.

A. ISRAELI SHEKEL DELIVERIES

In June 2006 the Israeli Shekel became eligible for currency delivery. The agent bank for the Shekel is Citibank in Tel Aviv. The SWIFT BIC to send funds is CITIILIT. Please contact the Clearing House if you require the delivery instructions for the Israeli Shekel.

To deliver the Israeli Shekel a dual Orders-To-Pay will be required for the longs and shorts. The long will need to issue an Orders-to-Pay denominated in USD and the short will need to issue an Orders -to- Pay denominated in Shekel to Citibank using SWIFT BIC CITIUS33DFU by 1:00 p.m. (Chicago Time) on the business day prior to the day of delivery.

B. CONTINUOUS LINKED SETTLEMENT

CLS is mandatory starting with the June 2005 delivery cycle for all foreign currency deliveries exceeding $50 million per currency pair. CLS is not mandatory if the foreign currency delivery can be expected to be less than $50 million per currency deliveries.

Effective in December 2005, firms with a foreign currency delivery obligation in excess of $50 million per currency pair failing to use CLS will be subject to an assessment fee of $10/per million for any currency exceeding the threshold.

All CLS transactions must be entered into CME Deliveries system by 11:00 a.m. (Chicago Time) on the last day of trading. The CME counterparty BIC for futures deliveries is XCMEUS4C. All transactions must be entered into the firm's CLS system by 5:00 p.m. (Chicago Time) on Monday, June 18, 2007. The deadline for CLS transactions including Canadian Dollars to match in the CLS system is 1:00 p.m. (Chicago Time), Tuesday, June 19, 2007. A clearing member firm failing to match a transaction by the deadline will be required to submit an order-to-pay in the appropriate amount for the value of the delivery by 3:00 p.m. (CST) on Tuesday, June 19, 2007.

*SPECIAL CLS NOTES

- When entering trades into CLS the firm should not invert the CME settlement price. Please do not use the "Triangulate" feature in CLS. Either of these may result in a currency amounts that may cause the CLS trade to be unmatched.
- If a firm enters multiple transactions into CLS then a firm should enter the same number of commitments into the C21 Currency Delivery System.
- Changes to any currency transactions must be made in both the firm's CLS system and CME's Currency Deliveries system. A firm failing to indicate the change in both systems will result in an unmatched transaction.
- Currency amounts must be equal in the CLS system and the currency delivery system. If the amounts are not equal the transaction will not match.
- The CME Counterparty BIC for currency futures deliveries is XCMEUS4C.

C. ORDERS-TO-PAYS FOR CITIBANK

Firms who are sending Orders-To-Pays to Citibank should send their Orders-To-Pay using SWIFT BIC CITIUS33DFU. If a firm is unable to send the order to pay to CITIUS33DFU and must send it to CITIUS33 please indicate in reference field 20 of the message CME-IMM before the transaction number. This will aid in locating the message to satisfy a firm's currency delivery requirement.
