Notice #: Q2007-302
Subject: NYMEX Listing One-Month Calendar Spreads Options and Crack Spread Options on CME Globex® – Effective Sunday, December 16, 2007

NYMEX issued the following notice today:

Notice No. 07-535
November 29, 2007

TO: All Exchange Members, Member Firms and Clearing Members

FROM: James E. Newsome, President

SUBJECT: Listing of NYMEX One-Month Calendar Spread Options and Crack Spread Options on CME Globex®

Beginning on Sunday evening, December 16, 2007 (for trade date December 17, 2007), the New York Mercantile Exchange, Inc. will list for trading, its NYMEX Division Crack Spread Options and One-Month Calendar Spread Options in Crude Oil, Natural Gas, Heating Oil, and RBOB Gasoline on the CME Globex® platform, alongside open-outcry trading on the NYMEX trading floor.

As listed in the table below, the options will trade on CME Globex® with product codes that differ from the existing clearing and trading product codes. The Clearing and Billing product codes for these products will remain as they currently are on the NYMEX trading floor, as well as for trade submission to NYMEX ClearPort® Clearing. The product codes for the synthetic (untradeable) underlying futures, which are used for settlement purposes, are listed in the second table below.

ZX	ZXY	SYNTHETIC NYMEX RBOB CRACK SPREAD FUTURES

Also on December 16, 2007, User Defined Spread (UDS) functionality will be made available on the entire list of options above. The CME Globex® UDS functionality allows traders using ISVs certified in UDS to create custom strategies of existing outright options, Exchange defined option strategies or other user defined option strategies, which can be covered with up to two futures legs. Strategies can be created for two to 40 individual legs, including any futures legs.

In order to ensure orderly exercise procedures, no expiring option will be accepted for trading after the close of "open outcry trading" for the respective contracts on the NYMEX floor on the day of expiration.

A mock trading session for this Options launch on CME Globex® is scheduled for Saturday, December 8, 2007. Additional details will follow.
