ADVISORY #: 13-373

SUBJECT: Reminder: CME Portal Changes Effective August 17, 2013

Please note that effective Saturday, August 17, 2013, CME Portal users who currently access the Portal via the website <http://connect.cme.com>, must switch their access to the <http://connect.cmegroup.com>. Currently, users are able to access the CME Portal via the legacy site: "connect.cme.com" or the new site: "connect.cmegroup.com". When using the legacy site, users are directed to the new site, which enables access to the Portal. With this change, the legacy site "connect.cme.com" will be decommissioned and users will not be directed to CME Portal.

Similarly, the same changes will be applied to the Portal Testing site <https://connectcert.cme.com>. Starting this Saturday, users must switch their access to <https://connectcert.cmegroup.com>.

To maintain your access to the Portal, all users have to switch their access to <http://connect.cmegroup.com>. There are no authorization or access changes to switch access. For issues or concerns, please contact the CME Help Desk at 3129303444.

Thank you.
